Meetings
Next Week

Please don't forget to book your annual Parent/Teacher Meetings. You have until 8pm tonight to book through the Aladdin App. The instructions are attached. If you'd rather have a phone call instead of an in-person meeting, please let your child's teacher know. Also, if your son receives support in literacy, numeracy, or English as an additional language, please remember to book a separate slot with the Special Education teacher.
