School Tours

Teachers are sending out letters this week and next week about upcoming school tours. Parents can pay for tours on Aladdin, please pay on time to ensure your child is included in the numbers for the trip. Teachers have tried to get the best value for the trips as possible, while also ensuring the children have a really special day out.

School Lotto

Everyone involved in the school lotto is in with a chance to win some big prizes in the big Summer Giveaway Draw on the 21st May. This week's winner is Mary Magee, congratulations Mary! The jackpot was not won and stands at €925

New Hot Lunch Menu Options

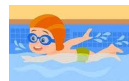

The Lunchbag has launched a range of new options for children for their hot lunches. Please use their app to select new options. Parents can also use the calendar feature on the app to opt out of hot lunches on particular days or if their child is going away and the lunches need to be cancelled for a number of days.

Europe Day 2026

We are looking forward to a great day on Monday, as we celebrate Europe Day. All the work done for Europe Day is part of the BlueStar programme. The highlight of the day promises to be our very own Eurovision Song Contest! RTE's children's news; News2Day, are even coming down to do a report!

Wear Blue on Monday

All students are invited to wear something blue on Monday, for our Europe Day!

Amber Flag

We found out today that we have secured our Amber Flag for promoting wellbeing and mental health.

Dates for the Diary
