Another Strike Day

It looks like the 2nd Strike Day is going ahead. Both Fórsa and the INTO are preparing their members for further picketing on Wednesday, 21st October. Hopefully there might be a deal over the next few days and we will be able to avoid a second strike day. In the meantime, parents should plan for a school closure.

If the Strike is called off

On next Wednesday, if the Strike is called off and we can come to school, there will be no hot lunches on that day. Students should bring a packed lunch to school.
